GOVERNOR JEB BUSH TO HEADLINE ANNUAL STORY COUNTY GOP DINNER

Nevada, IA – The Republican Party of Story County announced today that Governor Jeb Bush will be the keynote speaker for the fifth annual Judge Joseph Story Dinner. This will be the first visit to Story County by the former Governor of Florida. This special dinner will take place at Prairie Moon Winery in Ames on Monday, July 13, 2015 with doors opening at 5:30 p.m.

Governor Bush was governor of the state of Florida from 1999-2007 when he cut taxes to a total of $19 billion—all while growing the state budget reserves by $8 billion, implemented the first statewide voucher program, created 1.3 million new jobs, and helped Florida achieve it's first ever AAA bond rating.

“We are thrilled to give Story County voters a chance to see Governor Jeb Bush,” said Brett Barker, Story County GOP Chairman. “Governor Bush was a very successful and popular governor who instituted significant conservative reforms while Governor of the State of Florida.”

The dinner is an annual tradition to celebrate Judge Joseph Story. Judge Story served on the United States Supreme Court from 1811-1845 and is the namesake of Story County.

A limited number discounted advance tickets for the dinner are available at storycountygop.com for $30 by July 9.

A private VIP reception with Governor Bush will also take place at Prairie Moon Winery before dinner. There are a very limited number of tickets available for $100.

Those interested in being a host for the event may contact the Story County GOP Chairman Brett Barker at chair@storycountygop.com.
